NEW DISTRICT LEADERSHIP ANNOUNCED

Jenna Covington, P.E.
Executive Director/General Manager

NTMWD Board of Directors Announce New Executive Director/General Manager Jenna Covington, former NTMWD Assistant Deputy - Wastewater, has been appointed

Following an extensive national search, the North Texas Municipal Water District (NTMWD) Board of Directors has announced the appointment of Jenna Covington, P.E., as Executive Director/General Manager. The Board finalized its decision during a Special Called Board Meeting on Monday. Covington, who previously served as Assistant Deputy of NTMWD's Wastewater operations, assumed her new position on Tuesday, May 4, 2021.

"Jenna has a strong track record in the water utility industry," said NTMWD Board President Larry Parks. "We conducted a thorough, national search and look forward to her leadership for our organization and commitment to service for our Member Cities, Customers and the entire North Texas region."

NTMWD provides essential water, wastewater and solid waste management services to nearly two million people who live in the North Texas region. The District plans, designs and operates the critical water, wastewater and solid waste infrastructure critical to public health, economic growth and quality of life for the communities it serves.

"I look forward to the opportunity to continue the legacy of providing critical services to our region," said Covington. "I have dedicated my career to the advancement and ongoing development of the vital water utilities infrastructure. We have a strong team in place at the District ready to continue meeting the needs of those we serve now and into the future."
